

BRYAN, HILL, AND OTHERS.

POLITICAL GAMBLE IN NEW YORK ON THE POPOCRAT VOTE.

W. F. Sheehan Won't Be National Committee of Hinkley. State Chairman of Buffalo Endorses Chicago Hill on a Prospecting Tour—Looking to 1900.

Senator Hill visited Long Beach last night and was the guest of his former private secretary, Mr. Hill had a busy day yesterday and will return to the Hotel Normandie this morning. A dispatch was received last night from Chicago announcing that Chairman James K. Jones of the Popocratic National Committee was on his way to New York for the purpose of conferring with Senator Hill tonight. Senator Hill had a busy day yesterday and will return to the Hotel Normandie this morning. A dispatch was received last night from Chicago announcing that Chairman James K. Jones of the Popocratic National Committee was on his way to New York for the purpose of conferring with Senator Hill tonight.

SENATOR HILL A DELEGATE.

Mr. Hill Declines, as He Is Instructed to Vote to Endorse Bryan and His Platform.

ALBANY, Sept. 9.—The Albany County Democrats held their Assembly District Conventions and elected delegates to the State Convention in each of the four districts to go to Buffalo. All are organization men and all are for free silver, not for any personal predilection for either the issue or the candidates, but because they believe in the platform of the organization. The delegates do not go with positive assurance, but with a strong leaning toward each district convention adopted a resolution similar to this:

Resolved, That the Democratic party of the Third Assembly District of Albany county heartily endorses the National Democratic platform adopted by the Buffalo Convention, and the delegates to the State Convention are instructed to vote for Bryan and his platform.

CHAIRMAN HINKLEY TO RETIRE.

Did He and Senator Hill Seek to Turn the Party to the Support of Palmer?

PORT JEFFERSON, Sept. 9.—The newspapers are announcing the retirement of James V. Hinkley, Chairman of the Albany County Democratic State Committee, as shown to Mr. Hinkley this afternoon and he acknowledged its correctness. Referring to the same the Eagle will say: "There is doubtless more or less friction among the Democratic managers in this State. Hinkley and Senator Hill are the two main figures at Buffalo, and the indications are that both Senator Hill and Major Hinkley will retire from the party to the support of Palmer and Buckner, instead of Bryan and Sewall, they will. At the rate things are going, it might not be impossible to accomplish what the Albany County Democrats and Senator Hill are in favor of the 'regular candidates' and they will control."

LAMONT REPUDIATES BRYANISM.

He Says He Prefers to Keep the Old Faith and Remain a Democrat.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—The following telegram was received by the Albany County Democratic State Committee, Sept. 9, 1896. It was from Senator John A. Lamont, Secretary of War, to Mr. Bryan, explaining that Mr. Lamont's position on the political issue now pending.

HIG GALE DOWN EAST.

Heavy Wind Off Shore Causes Distress to Shipping.

NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 9.—Working against a high off-shore wind, a terrific sea has developed to-night. This morning the fishing schooners anchored off Seconnet looked hard at their anchors and cables and the men on board were anxious to get away. The schooner Helen F. Whitten of Gloucester did not like the looks of things and got under way for this port. While trying to beat in he lost his anchor and was carried out to sea. He is stuck just inside Castle Hill this morning. A lug got both anchors, which held for a while.

JEWELRY DRUMMER VANISHES.

Leroy W. Fairchild, Man of the Gold Pen Ming, Disappears in Suite City.

BRYAN'S TALKING TOUR.

HE WILL SCATTER SEEDS OF ORATORY
THROUGH THE SOUTH.

A Steady Flow of Speech for the Rest of the Month—Nebraska Feels Neglected—Sentiments from Donnelly and Grant of the "Blood to the Bridle" Complexion.

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 9.—Mr. Bryan's stay in Lincoln will be limited. He will leave on Friday, Sept. 11, at 9:15 P. M., by the Missouri Pacific for Kansas City, arriving at 10 A. M. Saturday. He will remain in Kansas City two hours, leaving at 9 o'clock for St. Louis, via the Wabash.

KILLED A DUCKING CLUB'S HERD.

6,000 English Phalaropes and 500 Domestic Fowls Poisoned.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 9.—Two colored men have been arrested and lodged in the Towson jail charged with poisoning 3,000 English pheasants and 500 domestic fowls, ducks, geese, chickens, and turkeys, the property of the Bowley's Quarter Ducking Club at Bengles, Md. The loss is placed at $5,000.

DON'T TAKE ANY WINDOW TENS.

They Are Halted from 99 Certificates A Bigger Office Passes Them.

The secret service officers of this city believe that a swindler is in town trying to pass raised silver certificates upon tradesmen. Chief Conlin has sent out a general order to all precinct Captains to warn tradesmen against what appears to be a swindler's scheme. The swindler is said to be a man named William Windom. There are no $10 silver certificates bearing the Windom portrait, and all such are genuine $2 certificates that have been raised. The alteration is readily detected when the raised certificate is examined under a microscope, but you don't need a microscope. If any officer offers you an $10 certificate, it is a bill with the portrait of Windom on it, which portrait is on the $2 certificate.

MISS HOFFMAN CONJURED.

She Tells About the Masked Robber Who Attacked Her.

WINSTED, Sept. 9.—Mary Hoffman, the 14-year-old daughter of Robert Hoffman, who was bound by a masked man, was found yesterday afternoon, after a search of the woods, in a field near the Hoffman place. Hoffman's daughter, who was found yesterday afternoon, after a search of the woods, in a field near the Hoffman place. Hoffman's daughter, who was found yesterday afternoon, after a search of the woods, in a field near the Hoffman place.

A TOWN UNDER ARMS.

Springfield, Ky., Protected by Armed Men from the Tollgate Raiders.

SPRINGFIELD, Ky., Sept. 9.—This town for forty-eight hours has been under a guard of armed men. Last night at every entrance to the city there were stationed determined citizens sworn in as deputy sheriffs, whose orders were to keep the place free of tollgate raiders. These men are known to each other and are known to the satisfaction of the guard to prevent them from entering. That the situation is considered serious is indicated not only by the presence of the heavy guard, but by the fact that the County Judge carries with him a 10-bore shotgun.

COUNTY TREASURER SHORT.

Two Ohio Officials Who Books Don't Balance—One Man Missing.

WAYNESVILLE, O., Sept. 9.—George W. Legg, Treasurer of Pike county, is a defaulter to the extent of $100,000 or more. His second term had just expired and his successor, Mr. Legg, had just been elected. An examination of the books of the treasurer showed a shortage of $100,000. The entire amount stolen will, it is estimated, exceed $100,000. A letter from Legg to the county clerk, dated Sept. 8, in which he asked for a check for $100,000, was not cashed. Legg's bondsmen will make good the shortage.

DEVOTE'S BURGLAR ALARM CUT.

He Did Not Catch the Burglar, but Lost a $100 Bicycle.

NEWTON, L. I., Sept. 9.—An elaborate burglar alarm system protects the premises of James Devote in Union avenue, this village. Mr. Devote is interested in electricity, and the alarm was one of his hobbies and the pride of the neighborhood. The burglar, however, was not deterred by the alarm and entered the house. The burglar, however, was not deterred by the alarm and entered the house.

CALIPH WAS LEFT HIGH AND DRY.

The Hippopotamus Kicked the Plug Out of His Tank and the Water Ran Out.

Yesterday afternoon, while Caliph, the oldest hippopotamus in the Central Park menagerie, was swimming in the tank here he and his attendant, Miss Murphy, dropped themselves, he accidentally kicked the plug out of the bottom of the tank. The water began to run out and Caliph sank lower and lower on the surface of the water. Miss Murphy stood on the platform outside and blinked contentedly in the sun.

WHO TOOK THIS MAIL BAG?

It Was Hung on the Catcher, but Wasn't Taken to the Post Office.

GROSVENOR DEPOT, Sept. 9.—Postmaster Loudon of Riverside and his son have been scouring the woods along the railroad track between Riverside station and Sound Beach in a search for the Eastern mail pouch, which mysteriously disappeared yesterday morning from the "catcher." The Eastern mail was put in a mail car at Riverside, and the pouch, and given to Mail Carrier Frank Gibson to carry to the station and hang in the usual place for the mail train, which goes through Riverside about 9 o'clock. Young Gibson hung the pouch up, and nothing more was thought of this every day event until Postmaster Loudon received a note from the mail clerk on the postal car, saying that he had failed to catch the pouch as the mail car passed through, and then the search began, but not the slightest trace has been found of the bag.

RUSSELL SAGE SUMMONED.

Ashe and Garbage in His Trinity Place Tombstone Not Properly Separated.

Magistrate Crane, in the Centre Street Police Court, issued on Tuesday a summons for Russell Sage, on the complaint of Policeman Birmingham of the Church street station, who charged that Mr. Sage did not keep the garbage, ashes, and refuse in three separate receptacles in his big four-story brick apartment at 21 Trinity place, as the law required him to do. The summons was served on Mr. Sage's office by a young lawyer from Col. James's office, appeared in behalf of Mr. Sage, who he said, was out of town, and promised that he would see the agent and janitor of the property in question, and instruct them to properly separate the refuse.

F. Brockhouth Cutting Very Low.

NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 9.—There is no change late to-night in the condition of F. Brockhouth, Cutting. He is very low, and is not expected to recover. He is suffering from a complication of diseases, including Bright's disease.

WILL SEWALL GOOR STAY?

WATSON SAYS HE'LL GO, BUT SEWALL SAYS HE WON'T.

And There You Are—Watson Says Jones Has Promised Sewall's Withdrawal and Bryum Says That's What Sewall Wants.
"Five No Idea of Getting Off the Ticket."

DENVER, Sept. 9.—Tom Watson, Populist candidate for Vice-President, was here last night. To restate he said: "I have come all the way from Georgia to fight any deal that the Populists may attempt with the Republicans of Texas. If fusion is effected between Republicans and Populists, the rank and file will never submit; the politicians cannot deliver the Populist party." Watson lamented the indifference of Bryan toward the Populist, without whose votes, he said, Bryan cannot be elected. He was bitter against Sewall, and declared that Sewall would be forced off the ticket; that there was a perfect understanding to that effect between him and Chairman Jones.

BOATMAN IN A STREET FIGHT.

The Louisiana Congressman Attacks an Editor with a Stick.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 9.—Congressman C. J. Boatner attacked Judge A. A. Gunby, editor of the Monroe Bulletin, on the streets of Monroe to-day with a heavy stick, and a fight resulted. The fight was brought about by a letter written by the Hon. A. Benoit, the Populist candidate for Congress, against Boatner and a candidate for reelection.

SAVED HER FATHER'S MONEY.

A Twelve-year-old Girl Shoots Down a Masked Robber.

HICKSVILLE, O., Sept. 9.—The home of M. Tracht, a well-known merchant here, was visited by two masked men yesterday afternoon, who were bent on robbery. Mr. Tracht was in Hicksville in the morning, and drew from the bank $1,000. The money was in the house while Mr. and Mrs. Tracht were at the home of a neighbor not far away. Two masked men approached the house, entered while the other kept guard on the outside.

WAR ON THE CHINESE.

"Do Not Let Them Go!" Were Li's Words to Canadian Minister Joly.

OTTAWA, Sept. 9.—In Parliament to-night Mr. Maxwell of British Columbia attacked the Government for permitting Chinese immigration, and urged an increase from $50 to $500 in the poll tax now imposed. Sir Henry Joly, Minister of Inland Revenue, who received Li Hung Chang at Niagara as the representative of the Dominion government, strongly denounced the attack upon the Chinese. The last words Li had said to him when referring to the proposed increase in restriction upon Chinese immigration were, "Do not abandon us." Sir Henry added:

LU'S WESTWARD JOURNEY.

He Will Likely Stay a Day at Banff, and Will Sail for China Next Monday.

WINNIPEG, Man., Sept. 9.—Li Hung Chang and his party reached Winnipeg at 2:15 P. M. by the Canadian Pacific, and remained for about two hours. The Earl did not leave his car, but received during his stay a representative of the Manitoba Government. United States Consul Duffie and German Consul Hepler were also received by his Excellency, who expressed satisfaction with his trip to Canada. Li Hung Chang will probably spend a day at Banff, and will sail for China next Monday morning. The party will be accompanied by a large number of Chinese, who will be sent to the United States by the Canadian Pacific.

DOORS OPEN ON BOTH COASTS.

British Diplomat's Remark on the Ease of Getting Across from Europe to America.

Alexander Gillan, the British Consul-General to Cuba, arrived here last evening on the steamship Vigilance. He is going to England on the steamship Campania, to spend the Christmas holidays with his family. He was reluctant, as a diplomat naturally are, to talk about war and politics, but he did not refuse to say that the "insurgents do not seem to have much difficulty in landing men in Cuba." He said that he had not seen to have much difficulty in getting away from here.

PAISEY'S STRANGE SUICIDE.

He Fought Dynamite Under His Pillow and Touched It Off.

WEBSTER CITY, Ia., Sept. 9.—In Palestine, Emmett county, yesterday B. S. Paisley lay down in bed, placed a stick of dynamite under his pillow, attached an electric battery, and touched the button. The windows of the house were broken, and the roof of the room was shattered with blood. Paisley came to Emmett county from Storey county in 1881, and had bought 400 acres of land, which he was selling for $100 an acre. He was a well-known man in the community.

AN AERONAUT TERRIBLY INJURED.

MONTREAL, Canada, Sept. 9.—Don Carlos Stevens, a New York aeronaut, filling an engagement to make daily parachute descents from a balloon at the Huntington County Fair, while making a descent yesterday sustained injuries that will probably result in his death. When the balloon was at a great distance he let go, shortly after releasing his hold the gear of the parachute broke and he came down with great velocity, striking the ground with terrific force. His spine was dislocated and he sustained internal injuries. He was at once removed to a hospital, and a little hope is entertained of his recovery.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION AT BUFFALO.

Take Legible Valley R. R. Round Trip Tickets Eight Dollars. Good Sept. 14 and 15, returning on or before Sept. 19. Tickets at all Legible offices.—Ado.

THE LATER NABBED AFTER A STRUGGLE.

Two Thieves Held up and Robbed Henry Hilderbrandt
at 1,912 Third Avenue. The house is a double-deck tenement, five stories high. He lives on the fourth floor. There is quite a long hall at the entrance. The stairway begins at the bottom of the hall and goes up to the top of the house. The stairway is very narrow. Third avenue at this point is a sharp turn, followed by a little landing and another turn, and there are three or four more steps before the second floor is reached. Standing in the lower hall facing the stairway it is not possible to see around the first
turn, while the hall therabouts is quite dark.

THE LATER NABBED AFTER A STRUGGLE.

Two Thieves Held up and Robbed Henry Hilderbrandt
at 1,912 Third Avenue. The house is a double-deck tenement, five stories high. He
lives on the fourth floor. There is quite a long
hall at the entrance. The stairway begins at the
bottom of the hall and goes up to the top of the
house. The stairway is very narrow. Third avenue at
this point is a sharp turn, followed by a little landing and another turn, and there are three or
four more steps before the second floor is
reached. Standing in the lower hall facing the
stairway it is not possible to see around the first
turn, while the hall therabouts is quite dark.

THE LATER NABBED AFTER A STRUGGLE.

Two Thieves Held up and Robbed Henry Hilderbrandt
at 1,912 Third Avenue. The house is a double-deck tenement, five stories high. He
lives on the fourth floor. There is quite a long
hall at the entrance. The stairway begins at the
bottom of the hall and goes up to the top of the
house. The stairway is very narrow. Third avenue at
this point is a sharp turn, followed by a little landing and another turn, and there are three or
four more steps before the second floor is
reached. Standing in the lower hall facing the
stairway it is not possible to see around the first
turn, while the hall therabouts is quite dark.

THE LATER NABBED AFTER A STRUGGLE.

Two Thieves Held up and Robbed Henry Hilderbrandt
at 1,912 Third Avenue. The house is a double-deck tenement, five stories high. He
lives on the fourth floor. There is quite a long
hall at the entrance. The stairway begins at the
bottom of the hall and goes up to the top of the
house. The stairway is very narrow. Third avenue at
this point is a sharp turn, followed by a little landing and another turn, and there are three or
four more steps before the second floor is
reached. Standing in the lower hall facing the
stairway it is not possible to see around the first
turn, while the hall therabouts is quite dark.

THE LATER NABBED AFTER A STRUGGLE.

Two Thieves Held up and Robbed Henry Hilderbrandt
at 1,912 Third Avenue. The house is a double-deck tenement, five stories high. He
lives on the fourth floor. There is quite a long
hall at the entrance. The stairway begins at the
bottom of the hall and goes up to the top of the
house. The stairway is very narrow. Third avenue at
this point is a sharp turn, followed by a little landing and another turn, and there are three or
four more steps before the second floor is
reached. Standing in the lower hall facing the
stairway it is not possible to see around the first
turn, while the hall therabouts is quite dark.

THE LATER NABBED AFTER A STRUGGLE.

Two Thieves Held up and Robbed Henry Hilderbrandt
at 1,912 Third Avenue. The house is a double-deck tenement, five stories high. He
lives on the fourth floor. There is quite a long
hall at the entrance. The stairway begins at the
bottom of the hall and goes up to the top of the
house. The stairway is very narrow. Third avenue at
this point is a sharp turn, followed by a little landing and another turn, and there are three or
four more steps before the second floor is
reached. Standing in the lower hall facing the
stairway it is not possible to see around the first
turn, while the hall therabouts is quite dark.

THE LATER NABBED AFTER A STRUGGLE.

Two Thieves Held up and Robbed Henry Hilderbrandt
at 1,912 Third Avenue. The house is a double-deck tenement, five stories high. He
lives on the fourth floor. There is quite a long
hall at the entrance. The stairway begins at the
bottom of the hall and goes up to the top of the
house. The stairway is very narrow. Third avenue at
this point is a sharp turn, followed by a little landing and another turn, and there are three or
four more steps before the second floor is
reached. Standing in the lower hall facing the
stairway it is not possible to see around the first
turn, while the hall therabouts is quite dark.

THE LATER NABBED AFTER A STRUGGLE.

Two Thieves Held up and Robbed Henry Hilderbrandt
at 1,912 Third Avenue. The house is a double-deck tenement, five stories high. He
lives on the fourth floor. There is quite a long
hall at the entrance. The stairway begins at the
bottom of the hall and goes up to the top of the
house. The stairway is very narrow. Third avenue at
this point is a sharp turn, followed by a little landing and another turn, and there are three or
four more steps before the second floor is
reached. Standing in the lower hall facing the
stairway it is not possible to see around the first
turn, while the hall therabouts is quite dark.

THE LATER NABBED AFTER A STRUGGLE.

Two Thieves Held up and Robbed Henry Hilderbrandt
at 1,912 Third Avenue. The house is a double-deck tenement, five stories high. He
lives on the fourth floor. There is quite a long
hall at the entrance. The stairway begins at the
bottom of the hall and goes up to the top of the
house. The stairway is very narrow. Third avenue at
this point is a sharp turn, followed by a little landing and another turn, and there are three or
four more steps before the second floor is
reached. Standing in the lower hall facing the
stairway it is not possible to see around the first
turn, while the hall therabouts is quite dark.

THE LATER NABBED AFTER A STRUGGLE.

Two Thieves Held up and Robbed Henry Hilderbrandt
at 1,912 Third Avenue. The house is a double-deck tenement, five stories high. He
lives on the fourth floor. There is quite a long
hall at the entrance. The stairway begins at the
bottom of the hall and goes up to the top of the
house. The stairway is very narrow. Third avenue at
this point is a sharp turn, followed by a little landing and another turn, and there are three or
four more steps before the second floor is
reached. Standing in the lower hall facing the
stairway it is not possible to see around the first
turn, while the hall therabouts is quite dark.

THE LATER NABBED AFTER A STRUGGLE.

Two Thieves Held up and Robbed Henry Hilderbrandt
at 1,912 Third Avenue. The house is a double-deck tenement, five stories high. He
lives on the fourth floor. There is quite a long
hall at the entrance. The stairway begins at the
bottom of the hall and goes up to the top of the
house. The stairway is very narrow. Third avenue at
this point is a sharp turn, followed by a little landing and another turn, and there are three or
four more steps before the second floor is
reached. Standing in the lower hall facing the
stairway it is not possible to see around the first
turn, while the hall therabouts is quite dark.

THE LATER NABBED AFTER A STRUGGLE.

Two Thieves Held up and Robbed Henry Hilderbrandt
at 1,912 Third Avenue. The house is a double-deck tenement, five stories high. He
lives on the fourth floor. There is quite a long
hall at the entrance. The stairway begins at the
bottom of the hall and goes up to the top of the
house. The stairway is very narrow. Third avenue at
this point is a sharp turn, followed by a little landing and another turn, and there are three or
four more steps before the second floor is
reached. Standing in the lower hall facing the
stairway it is not possible to see around the first
turn, while the hall therabouts is quite dark.

THE LATER NABBED AFTER A STRUGGLE.

Two Thieves Held up and Robbed Henry Hilderbrandt
at 1,912 Third Avenue. The house is a double-deck tenement, five stories high. He
lives on the fourth floor. There is quite a long
hall at the entrance. The stairway begins at the
bottom of the hall and goes up to the top of the
house. The stairway is very narrow. Third avenue at
this point is a sharp turn, followed by a little landing and another turn, and there are three or
four more steps before the second floor is
reached. Standing in the lower hall facing the
stairway it is not possible to see around the first
turn, while the hall therabouts is quite dark.

THE LATER NABBED AFTER A STRUGGLE.

Two Thieves Held up and Robbed Henry Hilderbrandt
at 1,912 Third Avenue. The house is a double-deck tenement, five stories high. He
lives on the fourth floor. There is quite a long
hall at the entrance. The stairway begins at the
bottom of the hall and goes up to the top of the
house. The stairway is very narrow. Third avenue at
this point is a sharp turn, followed by a little landing and another turn, and there are three or
four more steps before the second floor is
reached. Standing in the lower hall facing the
stairway it is not possible to see around the first
turn, while the hall therabouts is quite dark.

THE LATER NABBED AFTER A STRUGGLE.

Two Thieves Held up and Robbed Henry Hilderbrandt
at 1,912 Third Avenue. The house is a double-deck tenement, five stories high. He
lives on the fourth floor. There is quite a long
hall at the entrance. The stairway begins at the
bottom of the hall and goes up to the top of the
house. The stairway is very narrow. Third avenue at
this point is a sharp turn, followed by a little landing and another turn, and there are three or
four more steps before the second floor is
reached. Standing in the lower hall facing the
stairway it is not possible to see around the first
turn, while the hall therabouts is quite dark.

THE LATER NABBED AFTER A STRUGGLE.

Two Thieves Held up and Robbed Henry Hilderbrandt
at 1,912 Third Avenue. The house is a double-deck tenement, five stories high. He
lives on the fourth floor. There is quite a long
hall at the entrance. The stairway begins at the
bottom of the hall and goes up to the top of the
house. The stairway is very narrow. Third avenue at
this point is a sharp turn, followed by a little landing and another turn, and there are three or
four more steps before the second floor is
reached. Standing in the lower hall facing the
stairway it is not possible to see around the first
turn, while the hall therabouts is quite dark.

THE LATER NABBED AFTER A STRUGGLE.

Two Thieves Held up and Robbed Henry Hilderbrandt
at 1,912 Third Avenue. The house is a double-deck tenement, five stories high. He
lives on the fourth floor. There is quite a long
hall at the entrance. The stairway begins at the
bottom of the hall and goes up to the top of the
house. The stairway is very narrow. Third avenue at
this point is a sharp turn, followed by a little landing and another turn, and there are three or
four more steps before the second floor is
reached. Standing in the lower hall facing the
stairway it is not possible to see around the first
turn, while the hall therabouts is quite dark.

THE LATER NABBED AFTER A STRUGGLE.

Two Thieves Held up and Robbed Henry Hilderbrandt
at 1,912 Third Avenue. The house is a double-deck tenement, five stories high. He
lives on the fourth floor. There is quite a long
hall at the entrance. The stairway begins at the
bottom of the hall and goes up to the top of the
house. The stairway is very narrow. Third avenue at
this point is a sharp turn, followed by a little landing and another turn, and there are three or
four more steps before the second floor is
reached. Standing in the lower hall facing the
stairway it is not possible to see around the first
turn, while the hall therabouts is quite dark.

THE LATER NABBED AFTER A STRUGGLE.

Two Thieves Held up and Robbed Henry Hilderbrandt
at 1,912 Third Avenue. The house is a double-deck tenement, five stories high. He
lives on the fourth floor. There is quite a long
hall at the entrance. The stairway begins at the
bottom of the hall and goes up to the top of the
house. The stairway is very narrow. Third avenue at
this point is a sharp turn, followed by a little landing and another turn, and there are three or
four more steps before the second floor is
reached. Standing in the lower hall facing the
stairway it is not possible to see around the first
turn, while the hall therabouts is quite dark.

THE LATER NABBED AFTER A STRUGGLE.

Two Thieves Held up and Robbed Henry Hilderbrandt
at 1,912 Third Avenue. The house is a double-deck tenement, five stories high. He
lives on the fourth floor. There is quite a long
hall at the entrance. The stairway begins at the
bottom of the hall and goes up to the top of the
house. The stairway is very narrow. Third avenue at
this point is a sharp turn, followed by a little landing and another turn, and there are three or
four more steps before the second floor is
reached. Standing in the lower hall facing the
stairway it is not possible to see around the first
turn, while the hall therabouts is quite dark.

THE LATER NABBED AFTER A STRUGGLE.

Two Thieves Held up and Robbed Henry Hilderbrandt
at 1,912 Third Avenue. The house is a double-deck tenement, five stories high. He
lives on the fourth floor. There is quite a long
hall at the entrance. The stairway begins at the
bottom of the hall and goes up to the top of the
house. The stairway is very narrow. Third avenue at
this point is a sharp turn, followed by a little landing and another turn, and there are three or
four more steps before the second floor is
reached. Standing in the lower hall facing the
stairway it is not possible to see around the first
turn, while the hall therabouts is quite dark.

THE LATER NABBED AFTER A STRUGGLE.

Two Thieves Held up and Robbed Henry Hilderbrandt
at 1,912 Third Avenue. The house is a double-deck tenement, five stories high. He
lives on the fourth floor. There is quite a long
hall at the entrance. The stairway begins at the
bottom of the hall and goes up to the top of the
house. The stairway is very narrow. Third avenue at
this point is a sharp turn, followed by a little landing and another turn, and there are three or
four more steps before the second floor is
reached. Standing in the lower hall facing the
stairway it is not possible to see around the first
turn, while the hall therabouts is quite dark.

THE LATER NABBED AFTER A STRUGGLE.

Two Thieves Held up and Robbed Henry Hilderbrandt
at 1,912 Third Avenue. The house is a double-deck tenement, five stories high. He
lives on the fourth floor. There is quite a long
hall at the entrance. The stairway begins at the
bottom of the hall and goes up to the top of the
house. The stairway is very narrow. Third avenue at
this point is a sharp turn, followed by a little landing and another turn, and there are three or
four more steps before the second floor is
reached. Standing in the lower hall facing the
stairway it is not possible to see around the first
turn, while the hall therabouts is quite dark.

THE LATER NABBED AFTER A STRUGGLE.

Two Thieves Held up and Robbed Henry Hilderbrandt
at 1,912 Third Avenue. The house is a double-deck tenement, five stories high. He
lives on the fourth floor. There is quite a long
hall at the entrance. The stairway begins at the
bottom of the hall and goes up to the top of the
house. The stairway is very narrow. Third avenue at
this point is a sharp turn, followed by a little landing and another turn, and there are three or
four more steps before the second floor is
reached. Standing in the lower hall facing the
stairway it is not possible to see around the first
turn, while the hall therabouts is quite dark.